

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

4 | Christina Jordan, et al.,

Case No. 2:21-cv-02228-CDS-NJK

Plaintiffs

Order Denying Motions to Dismiss and Ordering Joint Status Report

V.

Wyndham Vacation Ownership Inc., et al.,

[ECF Nos. 74, 75, 76]

Defendants

On March 15, 2024, I granted the parties' stipulation to continue the previously entered stay for an additional 60 days. ECF No. 109. The stipulation provides that, because of the recent, unexpected loss of plaintiffs' counsel, plaintiffs will need to seek new representation. Id. Defendants have no objection to the pending withdrawal. Id. Defendants filed three motions to dismiss. ECF Nos. 74, 75, 76. In light of the stay, together with the need for plaintiffs to obtain new counsel, the pending motions [ECF Nos. 74, 75, 76] are denied without prejudice.

16 Once plaintiffs retain new counsel, the parties are directed to meet and confer to 17 determine if this matter should be set for settlement conference; if the motions or the issues
18 raised therein can be resolved without court intervention; or if the motions need to be 19 reactivated. The parties are ordered to file a joint status report setting forth the outcome of their 20 meeting, to include a proposed briefing schedule, if needed, on or before May 31, 2024. In the 21 alternative, the parties may submit this information in the already scheduled May 13, 2024
22 status report regarding discovery.
